

Welcome! User-friendly communication at all levels

The new DETAX website is online: with a fresh design, even more information and improved simplicity. The focus is on maximum customer benefit, intelligent user guidance and ease of use. With new, smart functions we aim to offer our customers useful added value. The barrier-free website is open as far as the type of presentation selected is concerned. It provides optimum access on any media, no matter whether the user calls it up with a conventional web browser, a PDA or a mobile phone.
